How to Use This Book

Pick any tools you like.

Colored pencils, gel pens, fine-tip markers and crayons all sit nicely on the white interior paper.

Every design is one-sided.

A blank page backs each design, so your colors never ghost onto the next piece — and finished pages are easy to trim out and frame.

The pages fit standard frames.

The trim size is 8.5 × 11 inches, so a finished design slips straight into a standard letter-size frame.

Using alcohol markers?

Slip a spare sheet of paper behind the page you are coloring — alcohol inks can bleed through even a blank page.

Color outside the rules.

Fill every line, or leave areas white and let the minimal lines do the work. There is no wrong way to use this book.
